

Volunteer Role Scoff Café Bank Volunteer

We are looking for people who would like to join our bank of café volunteers to help out at Scoff Café on an occasional basis when our regular volunteers are unavailable. If you would like to contribute some time to help your community but can't or don't want to commit to every Wednesday, we want to hear from you! Bank shifts will be agreed in advance with as much notice as possible.

There are a range of duties for a Scoff Café Helper - volunteers can choose which roles they wish to help with.

- Set up of room on Wednesdays (lunch time)
- Assist with preparation of food
- Assist with cooking of meal (cooking requires a food hygiene certificate – course provided)
- Serve customers
- Take the money
- Clear tables throughout the session and wipe tables
- Help to tidy up the kitchen and hall at end of the session
- Help to advertise SCOFF Café to local residents
